NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

The verses of the following were good, but for various reasons inadmissible. They are destroyed. "W. H. S."—"Roderick's" longer poem—"E. H. B."—"Guiseppe"—"S. J."—"Musophilus," and let him send his work—"M *"—"O. P." Many papers are under consideration, and many will be returned by post. "Scrutator" should ask Madame Vestris himself.

Let it be distinctly understood, that we are answerable for the return of NO MANUSCRIPTS.

NOTICES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS MUST BE ADDRESSED TO THE EDITOR, AT MESSRS. SAUNDERS AND OTLEY'S, CONDUIT STREET, HANOVER SQUARE. (POST FREE.)

We again repeat we cannot undertake to return short pieces.

To "W. B."—Yes, probably in our next. The following are declined:—"Hats and Heads"—"To a Bunch of Violets"—"The Poet to his Last Sovereign"—"Sonnets, by Guiseppe"—"The Boy Crying."—How could Mr. Stevenson think us so merciless to our readers as to entertain for a moment the idea of inserting his hundred and fifty stanzas? They are left at the Publishers'.—We have this month answered and forwarded a number of communications, but cannot continue to do this; they must in future be answered in our "Notices to Correspondents," and left till called for at the Publishers'.
